

South Eastern Chamber of Commerce AWARDS 2006

Malcolm Bradshaw, our Chief Executive has been a supporter of SMEs for all of his working life.

Three years ago he was voted onto the board of Sussex Enterprise – the UK's third largest Chamber of Commerce.

This year he was elected to the position of President of the South Eastern Chamber of Commerce, which represents over 10,000 accredited businesses throughout the greater South East.

He we see him presenting awards at the South Eastern ceremony in September.

As part of his recognition of the work for small/medium sized businesses he was appointed to the main board of the British Chambers of Commerce, which promotes best practice and networking among businesses in the UK.
